

The StatoilHydro art programme invites you to the opening of the exhibition

Photography matters: The Helsinki School

1 October 2009 – 1 February 2010

Time: 18.00 Thursday 1 October 2009

Place: StatoilHydro office, main reception,
Drammensveien 264, Vækerø, Oslo, Norway

The Helsinki School of Photography has become an international brand, recognised for its innovative works of art and excellence in talent development.

What is it? How did it happen? What is the result?

The exhibition shows a comprehensive selection of works by Finnish photographers from the Helsinki School represented in the StatoilHydro art collection.

Programme:

- Welcome
- Opening by Peter Stenlund, the Finnish Ambassador to Norway
- Introduction by Timothy Persons, director of Professional Studies Program and senior lecturer at the University of Art and Design, Helsinki, Finland
- Musical performance by Barratt Due Institute of Music

The winner of the Finnish Young Artist of the Year award 2010 will be present at the opening.

Welcome!

Limited participation,

RSVP to shartprog@statoilhydro.com or T: +47 51994519

StatoilHydro

Invitation

Saviour, 2008
Susanna Majuri